

About Me

Currently in full time private practice with offices in Wayne and Phoenixville, PA. Have been practicing for over 25 years.

Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the New School for Social Research

Co-author of Psychotherapy of Cocaine Abuse: Entering the Interpersonal World of the Cocaine Addict (Aronson,1997)

Consultant on Drug Abuse Curriculum for Employee Assistance Program Professionals (published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services)

Research Supervisor at the Center for Psychotherapy Research at the University of Pennsylvania. Supervised a multi-year study funded by the National Institute on Drug Abuse comparing different treatment approaches for cocaine abuse.

Research Consultant for the Treatment Research Unit at the University of Pennsylvania. Involved in a comprehensive study of various aspects of drug craving.

Have worked extensively in inpatient and outpatient drug treatment clinics at Thomas Jefferson University, Crozer-Chester Medical Center and the Belmont Center for Comprehensive Treatment.

Worked on Gambling Addictions Unit at the Philadelphia Psychiatric Center.

Licensed Psychologist in Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Accept various health insurance carriers such as Cigna Behavioral Health, United Behavior Health, CompPsych, Value Options, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Oxford.

Don't hesitate any longer. You can get the help and understanding you need. By just picking up the phone, you have taken your first step on a path to recovery.

Call me at 866.826.8325

Jeffrey Faude, Ph.D.